WHERE ARE THE DEAD?

the Adversary's influence. He employs various methods in order that he may deceive. He makes some believe that they are not receiving the proper consideration, notice and honor to which they are entitled. This leads them into a wrong course.

Saint Paul emphasizes the fact that the conflict of the church in the end of the age will be particularly with the evil spirits. These evil spirits have been restrained since the great deluge, and their days of judgment is at hand. We therefore should expect that they would be able to exercise greater power over the human race now than at any time since their restraint. Many scriptures clearly indicate that the real battle ground of the Christian is the mind, therefore, the attack of the evil spirit will be expected along this line. We learn from one who was long subjected to the influence of these demons that their method of attack is as follows: First, by suggestion. By suggestion is meant that the demons intrude upon the mind with thoughts. All Christians realize that they have a conflict in keeping out the mind thoughts that are improper and that it is a constant warfare to keep them out. But where one indulges in evil surmising, judging another, filling his mind with evil thoughts; such is yielding to suggestions, and if persisted in, leads to the second stage, which is designated as, Abbreviation. The word Abbreviation means to cut short. It here means lack of continuity of thought, or lack of concentration of thought. One who finds himself given over to evil surmising and evil thoughts will find great difficulty in concentration of mind upon the study of the Lord's word, the "Scripture Studies," or in prayer. Attempting either prayer or study, the one finds his mind suddenly turned away from his subject and his thoughts turned to or set upon evil things. Thus continuing he loses sight of principle, namely, the great truths of God's word, and this leads to the third stage designated as, Impression, which means that one is moved to act from sources other than the word of God. The word impression, means sensible result of influence exerted from without. In other words, it is to be controlled by passion, not by the word of God. For instance, one says, I am moved to take this course because of what I have heard, or what influence another has brought to bear upon me, at the same time entirely ignoring the word of God concerning the subject. This persisted in leads to the fourth stage namely, Possession, whereby it is understood that the evil spirits take possession of the mind and control his conduct.

The Apostle tells us, "God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble minded." From this we would understand that humility of mind and heart would be a special protection provided by the Lord, and that any one manifesting spiritual pride or ambition, the Lord would remove from such one this protection and the evil spirits would have special power over him.

All Scriptures indicate that the conflict will become more and more severe as we near the close of the Gospel Age. We may expect that all the Lord's true servants who are actively engaged in the closing hours of the harvest will be attacked through human agencies by these evil spirits. We may expect that all manner of charges and attacks will be made by them through human agencies against the reputation and standing of others who are engaged in the harvest work, which will constitute a test of all brethren, as to whether they will be governed by passion, or whether they will be governed by the principles of God's word. The prominent position occupied by one in the harvest work, the more venomous will be the attack. Let each one examine his own heart carefully and see to it that his own conclusions are based upon right principles, namely, the word of God, and not upon outside influence. No other course is safe.

The soldiers of the cross must have special strength in order to stand at this time, and to repel the combined attack of Satan and his host of helpers. If we look at it from one standpoint, we would become dismayed and despair of winning, but looking at it from another view point, we know that, He who is for us is greater than all who can be against us, and with him for us none can prevail against us. We are now in the evil day. How then may we have the strength needed? The Apostle tells us of the Armour of God, provided for us, which will prove a guarantee against all attacks of the Adversary. "Wherefore, take unto you the whole Armour of God that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand." Eph. 6:13. The assurance here is that he who has this armour on and keeps it on, and learns to use it properly will be able to stand.

God is the maker of this armour through human agents. The armour consists of his words, message of truth, put into proper shape to be used for the benefit of the New Creation. Describing this armour in detail, the Apostle says:

"Having your loins girded about with the truth." The girdle is a symbol of servitude, and suggest that no one is safe at this time unless he is a servant of the truth. Those engaged in evil surmising, fault finding, backbiting, slander, libel or other works of darkness are not servants of the truth. Let each one of us see to it that he guards himself against such works of the Adversary, and on the contrary that he possess the zeal peculiar to the house of the Lord and earnestly and zealously follow in the Master's footsteps, by serving his cause at this time.

"And having on the breastplate of righteousness." The breastplate was used to cover the vital organs of the body, particularly the heart. A proper condition of heart is vital to the New Creation. A righteous heart indicates purity, righteous motives, righteousness of character. "Keep thine heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life." Prov. 4:23. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Mat. 5:8. "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show his strength in behalf of him whose heart is pure." 2nd Chron. 16:9.

DEMPSEY READY TO TACKLE
WILLS, McVEA, LANGFORD OR OTHER COLORED BATTLES

(Star News Service)
NEW YORK, N. Y., July 22.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight pugilist, is not averse to fighting a Negro boxer, according to an announcement here last night by the International Sporting club.

In reversing his attitude on the color line, the champion stated he is ready to make a match with Harry Wills, who is scheduled to meet Fred Fulton at the Newark Sportsman's club next Monday.

"As for the colored boxers," Dempsey said, "you can say for me, and make it as strong as you like, that I have absolutely no scruples of race in fighting for the championship. Jack Kearns, my manager, contended that mixed bouts are injurious to the sport, and for that reason would not consider any for me. It is different now. If the press, public or promoters want me to box a Negro, I'll gladly take the match. That goes for Harry Wills, Sam Langford, Sam McVea or the other colored stars. To be quite frank about it, I need the money."
